Richmond, BC – Enjoy the soulful sounds of Sophie and Nick Tweed-Simmons – the stars of A&E’s hit television series, Gene Simmons Family Jewels – when they’ll be appearing at the River Rock Casino Resort. For the past two years, Sophie and Nick have been performing at various clubs in Los Angeles including the Sayers Club on Hollywood Boulevard and the W Hotel Hollywood. And just last November, they appeared for two nights inside Lulu’s Lounge at the River Rock Casino Resort as part of the Grey Cup Festival.

Earlier this year, Metro Vancouver’s first child protection centre, Sophie’s Place opened in Surrey, BC. The centre was named after Sophie who got involved in the project after meeting Surrey mayor, Dianne Watts. Sophie is currently studying Computer Engineering and Religious Studies at Pitzer College in Claremont, California. Nick – who graduated from Pitzer last year with a Bachelor of Arts degree in English – recently celebrated his 23rd birthday in Las Vegas where he performed at Hyde Nightclub inside the Bellagio.

During their upcoming engagement at River Rock, Sophie and Nick will be performing such classic standards as Etta James’ “At Last” and Dean Martin’s “Sway” along with some blues & jazz selections. Don’t miss Sophie & Nick Tweed-Simmons when they’ll be appearing for one night only at the River Rock Show Theatre on June 1, 2012.
