STEVE EARLE

LIVE AT THE RED ROBINSON SHOW THEATRE
FRIDAY, JUNE 8

Coquitlam, BC – A protégé of legendary songwriters, Townes Van Zandt and Guy Clark, musician Steve Earle quickly became a master storyteller in his own right with his songs being recorded by such artists as Johnny Cash, Willie Nelson, Emmylou Harris, Waylon Jennings and The Pretenders. His debut album, Guitar Town was released in 1986 and featured the title song and “Goodbye’s All We Got Left”. The album shot to #1 on the country charts and immediately established the term, “New Country”. What followed was a varied array of releases including the biting hard rock of Copperhead Road (1988), the minimalist beauty of Train A Comin’ (1995), the politically charged masterpiece, Jerusalem (2002) and the Grammy Award-winning albums, The Revolutions Starts ... Now (2004), Washington Square Serenade (2007) and Townes (2009).

Earle’s most recent album, I’ll Never Get Out Of This World Alive was released last year alongside his debut novel of the same name. The album features the songs “This City”, “God Is God” and “I Am A Wanderer”. He is also recognized as an actor from his roles on HBO’s two critically acclaimed series, The Wire and Treme. Additionally he guest starred on NBC’s Law & Order and appeared opposite Edward Norton, Richard Dreyfuss and Susan Sarandon in the 2009 feature film, Leaves of Grass. Steve Earle will be performing all his classics including “Copperhead Road”, “I Feel Alright” and “Hard-Core Troubadour” at Boulevard Casino’s Red Robinson Show Theatre on June 8, 2012.
