Richmond, BC – A Vancouver legend for more than seven decades, Dal Richards continues to swing – leading his orchestra of talented musicians in a blend of unique sounds that capture the best of the big band era along with jazz, rock and pop standards from the 1930's to today. Dal has recorded and produced six albums ... his latest, Musically Yours was released just last year. Dal also released his memoir entitled Dal Richards: One More Time. Written in collaboration with well-known Vancouver artist and biographer Jim Taylor, the book became a BC best seller and was selected by the BC Booksellers Association as a finalist for the 2010 BC Book Awards.

Dal proudly played for the 2010 Winter Paralympics Opening Ceremonies and the 2010 Winter Olympic Games while just this past March, he performed at The Province's 150th Anniversary Celebration. Recently he started up the Dal Richards Foundation to support music programs for young musicians across BC. He is a recipient of the Order of Canada (1994) and the Order of Canada (2003) and as well, he is a winner of the City of Vancouver's Civic Merit Award (2005). Dal can still be heard every Sunday night when he hosts the popular weekly radio show, Dal's Place which airs on AM 650. Join the King of Swing, Dal Richards along with his Orchestra when they'll be performing for a special Mother's Day Tea & Dance inside Lulu's Lounge at the River Rock Casino Resort on May 13, 2012.
