CASINO WOODBINE SEEKS LOCAL TALENT TO FILL MORE THAN 500 POSITIONS

Toronto, ON (May 15, 2018): During the month of May, Casino Woodbine will host a series of career fairs to begin filling more than 500 table games positions. Casino Woodbine is embarking on this important initiative with a focus on hiring local talent from surrounding neighbourhoods, in keeping with its commitment to community benefits.

“As an equal opportunity employer, we are looking for a diverse range of candidates who are passionate about customer service. I would encourage all to apply, as previous gaming experience is not mandatory. Appropriate paid training will be provided by our in-house trainers,” said Spencer Parazader, General Manger, Casino Woodbine.

Full time and part time positions are available in the following roles: Table Games Dealers, Table Games Floor Supervisors, Table Games Pit Managers and Shift Managers, Table Games Training Managers and Table Games Director.

“At Casino Woodbine, we are focused on ensuring a diverse work environment that is driven by support, collaboration, engagement, and recognition. Most importantly, we offer opportunities for personal and professional development in career-track roles,” added Parazader.

Career fairs will take place at Casino Woodbine and are scheduled for the following dates: Wednesday, May 16, Thursday, May 24 and Saturday, May 26.

Job Fair Details:

- Wednesday, May 16 (10am until 6pm)
- Thursday, May 24 (12pm until 8pm)
- Saturday, May 26 (10am until 2pm)
